Are you curious about what happens at a Toastmasters club meeting, but you have been too nervous to drop in on a meeting alone? Find out without that pressure at our Open House on January 13th! Please be sure to get there at 6:00 pm so that you can network and have some one-on-one time with current Toastmasters. Hear about the different ways Toastmasters has impacted our lives individually! The demonstration meeting starts at 6:30 pm, so you will want to stick around to preview Toastmasters before starting your public speaking journey. Still too nervous? Bring a friend or two, but rest assured there will be many visitors like you!
